

LANXESS to hold “Virtual Days”

- Interactive event on June 9 and 10 for customers and interested parties from around the world
- 40 webinars on products, services and strategic alignment
- Focus on specialties for the consumer protection and sustainability

Cologne, May 23, 2022 – LANXESS is hosting the “Virtual Days”: On June 9 and 10, 2022, existing and potential customers of the specialty chemicals company can learn about new product developments, technologies and general industry trends at the online event. The focus will be on consumer protection and sustainability.

The webinars will be held in in different languages on a time-shifted basis for the EMEA, Asia, India and Americas regions, with content tailored to their specific needs. In a total of 40 webinars, LANXESS experts will guide participants through topics such as biosecurity, personal care, battery technologies, recycling of packaging materials and water treatment. Overarching industry topics such as climate neutrality or the redesign of supply chains due to the Corona pandemic and trade conflicts in the current geopolitical situation are also covered.

Who would like to participate can register for the LANXESS Virtual Days free of charge online at <https://lanxess.com/virtual-days-2022>.
